Church Lads' & Church Girls' Brigade
Ulster Regiment – Going Places!

May 2014

Annual Parade and Service

Saint John's, Fivemiletown (Clogher), was filled to capacity when the Ulster Regiment paraded for its Annual Service on Passion Sunday. Rev Kyle Hanlon and Dean Robert Townley led an inspiring service which was appealing to the young congregation. The Parade was led by Murley Silver and Cavanaleck Pipe Bands.
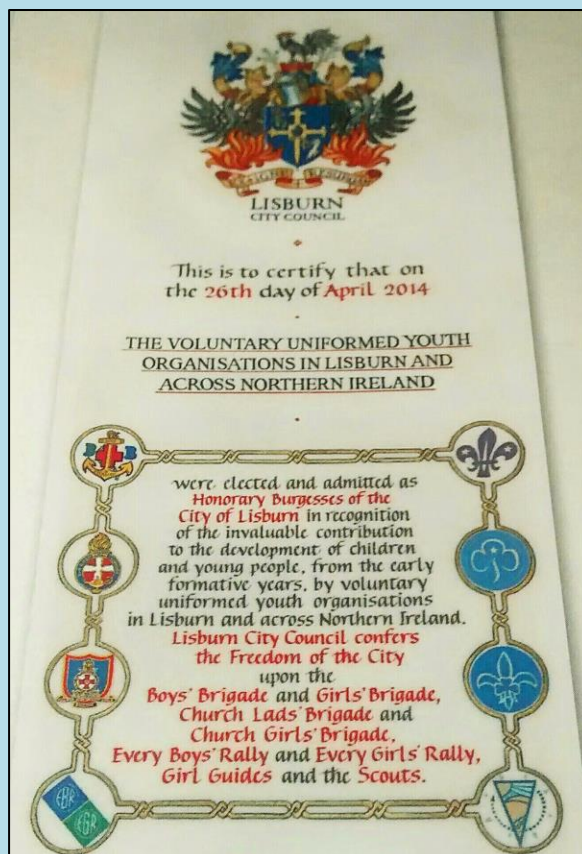

Sports Day, Antrim, Saturday 7th June. Be there!

Lisburn, Freedom of the City

Major Margaret McCabe, C.O. 1st/3rd Battalion, on behalf of the Lisburn Companies, signed the scroll (shown below) conferring the Freedom of the City on the Brigade and other youth organisations. All who paraded received a Commemorative Medal.

The Lisburn Companies - Ballinderry, Broomhedge, Christ Church, Magheragall, St Paul's and St Hilda's, Dunmurry (Connor Diocese) paraded through the City to mark the conferral of Freedom of the City on the CL&CGB and other youth organisations to recognise the work done amongst young people in the community.

Holy Trinity, Portrush (Connor) - Above are members of the Portrush Girls' Company and below the Portrush Lads' Company pictured following their Enrolment Service. The CLB Company in Portrush was enrolled in 1899.

Five-a-Sides at Laurelhill

The 5-a-Side Football Competition had a much improved entry with nearly 30 teams playing. Group winners were – A. St Hilda's, B. Ballymena, C. Seagoe, D. St. Paul's, E. Carnmoney.

Officer Training – Martin Clayton, Ulster Regiment Training Officer (above right), working with leaders at Part Two Training Courses held at St Patrick's, Ballymena (Connor) and St Saviour's, Dobbin (Armagh).

Magherafelt Display

(Armagh Diocese) Left – Former Company Captain Beth McIlwrath receives flowers. Right – Mother Wendy presents daughter Nicole with 5 Year Medal. Above – The Martins. Below – The Y Team and Beth McIlrath presents Catherine Evans with the Betsy Bell Cup for being the most promising girl.